Integrated Infrastructural Development Scheme

2437. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL: Will the Minister of SMALL SCALE INDUSTRIES AND AGRO AND RURAL INDUSTRIES be pleased to slate:

(a) whether Government propose to implement IIDS (Integrated Infrastructural Development Scheme) for the development of small scale industries in rural and backward areas in Rajasthan and Orissa States;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) what other measures Government are undertaking to promote SSI (Small Scale Industries) in Rajasthan and Orissa during 1999-2000 and 2000-2001 and whether any budgetary provisions have been made therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SMALL SCALE INDUSTRIES AND AGRO AND RURAL INDUSTRIES (SHRIMATI VASUNDHRA RAJE): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The Government of India has already sanctioned four Integrated Infrastructural Development (UD) Centres in Rajasthan, one each in the district of Jodhpur, Nagur, Tonk and Udaipur. Central grant of Rs. 4.97 crores has already been released for these centres. In the State of Orissa, three UD Centres one each in the districts of Khurda, Rayagadha and Jagatsinghpur have been sanctioned and the Central grant of Rs. 2.99 crores has been released. All these projects are at various stages of implementation.

(b) The programmes / schemes of the Government to promote the Small Scale Industries Sector are common throughout the country including Rajasthan and Orissa and are implemented through organizations like Small Industries Development Organization, National Small Industries Corporation and Small Industries Development Bank of India. These include schemes for technology upgradation, Prime Minister's Rozgar Yojana for the educated unemployed youth, Rural Employment Generation Programmes and development of rural clusters through the National Programme for Rural Industrialisation.

These on-going programmes/schemes for development of small scale industries sector are proposed to be continued during the year 1999-2000 and 2000-2001. During the Ninth Five Year Plan (1997-2002), a total amount of Rs. 4304.00 crores have been earmarked for promotion of SSI sector in the country as a whole. However, funds are allocated programme/scheme-wise and not State-wise and required budgetary provisions have been made as usual.
